

$ Limiting Beliefs vs. Empowering Beliefs **$

Money is the root of all evil.

Money is a tool I can use to do good for my family and the world.

I could never do that. I need to be practical.

I can be practical AND build the life of my dreams.

Money can't buy happiness.

Money is a tool that can be used to build a beautiful life.

I'll never be rich or wealthy.

I am taking steps daily to become wealthier.

Money is hard to come by.

I look for opportunities to work smarter, not harder.

I don't know enough to do that.

I am a great learner, and I will figure it out.

All debt is bad.

I use debt strategically if it makes sense.

I'm not good with money.

I am learning to be good with money every day.

Pinching pennies is the only way to wealth.

Building wealth is a balance between earning, saving, and investing.

It's too hard to learn about money.

Learning about money is fun and easy.
